

IDLE MONEY

Money often lies idle awaiting opportunities for investment; but these opportunities do not come every week, month, or even year. In the meantime, this money should be earning something; and it can, if you place it in this bank.

Oratory in the Commons.
One of the London weeklies laments the decay of oratory in the house of commons. An observer has classified the styles of parliamentary speaking thus: "Haw haw" style, the "hum and haw" style and the "he haw" style. The first, he says, is used by the haughty gentlemen who toll in triumph on the treasury bench, the second distinguishes the utterances of the keen and watchful gentlemen on the front opposition bench, while the third sort fairly describes the effort of the private member.

Parental Influence.
"Sir," said the young man, "I trust you will object to my marriage with your daughter?"

"Why so?" queried the astonished parent.

"Because," explained the young man, "if you do I think she will consent to have me."—Chicago News.

What She Said.
Jack—I thought you were very attentive to Miss Banker. Tom—I was, but after what she said I shall have nothing more to do with her. Jack—What did she say? Tom—She said "No."

Purity of Bread.
It cannot be too often repeated that of all food that comes to table there is nothing so pure as bread.—London Bakers' Times.

He who lives after nature shall never be poor; after opinion shall never be rich.—Seneca.

THE BREATH OF LIFE.
It's a significant fact that the strongest animal of its size, the gorilla, also has the largest lungs. Powerful lungs means powerful creatures. How to keep the breathing organs right should be man's chiefest study. Like thousands of others, Mrs. Ora A. Stephens, of Port Williams, O., has learned how to do this. She writes: "Three bottles of Dr. King's New Discovery stopped my cough of two years and cured me of what my friends thought consumption. O, it's grand, for throat and lung troubles." Guaranteed by Barclay & Groover, druggists. Price 50c and $1.00. Trial bottle free.
